

Short CV

Petar Đukić, full professor at the Faculty of Technology and Metallurgy University of Belgrade.

Already scientific fields: theoretical economics, engineering economics, micro and macroeconomics, external economics and sustainable development. He graduated from the Faculty of Political Science, University of Belgrade In 1976, he received his master's degree in 1984, and his doctorate in 1988 from areas of macroeconomics. He attended professional trainings in London, New York, Lisbon ... Regular member of the Scientific Society Economist of Serbia, member of the Presidency of the Association of Economists of Belgrade, President of the Committee for Sustainable energy of the Association of Power Engineers of Serbia.

Performed or performs the functions of a member at the invitation of the Scientific Council of the Institute of Economic Sciences, Economic, Political and Social Council of the United Branch Trade Unions "Independence", Secretary of the Scientific Society economist of Yugoslavia and Serbia, vice president of the Society of Economists of Belgrade. Lectured at universities and research institutes in Germany, England, Russia, and as an expert of the IFL CIO Solidarity Center in Washington, D.C., and in seminars on economic and social reforms and privatization in Algeria and Kuwait.

He also performed or is performing the following functions: member of the Council of the Commission for Protection of Competition of the Republic of Serbia, The Committee for Economic Policy and Economic Development of the Belgrade Chamber of Commerce, two management boards business companies in Serbia, vice dean of the Faculty of Technology and Metallurgy, University of Belgrade.

Editor-in-Chief of Oikos Economics, member of the editorial boards of three scientific journals.

As a team leader and expert, he participated in the development of three national strategies of the Republic of Serbia. The author is: 9 independent or co-authored monographs, 5 university textbooks and 40 chapters in monographs, more of 350 independent scientific and professional papers, published in domestic and foreign scientific-professional journals. As a speaker by invitation, he has published more than 90 papers at domestic and international scientific conferences. Together with professional essays, essays, communications, reviews and reviews, his oeuvre to date includes over 500 bibliographic items.